

Wisconsin Unit
Fall Colorama Rally
October 4–7, 2007
Beantown Campground, Baileys Harbor, Wisconsin

Door County's newest campground offers grassy and level pads, 30 amp service, water, satellite TV, rest rooms with showers, laundry facility, WIFI, dump station, playground, lounge area, and fire pits.
Time	Activity
Thursday, October 4
12:00 p.m.	Parking and rally begin
Ongoing	Register Pick out a pumpkin for the pumpkin carving contest
Ongoing	Book exchange Bring your books to the recreation room
12:00 p.m.– 4:00 p.m.	Free time (socialize or explore Door County) Options: hiking the trails in Peninsula State Park, shopping, sightseeing, take in the Autumn Amish Quilt Show & Sale in Sister Bay's Village Hall, or carve your pumpkin
4:00 p.m.	Happy hour (last names beginning with A–F please bring snacks)
6:00 p.m.	Pot luck dinner (bring table service and serving utensils for your dish) coffee/milk provided
6:30 p.m.	Social hour (cards/games/popcorn)
Friday, October 5
8:00 a.m.	Breakfast Biscuits and gravy, juice, coffee (bring table service)
9:30 a.m.– 1:00 p.m.	Caravan to Cana Island / optional tour U.S. Lighthouse (nominal fee) Caravan continues to Peninsula State Park (SP fee $3.00) for fall color at spectacular vistas and, for the hearty, climb to the top of Eagle Tower. Bring lunch for picnic in park (weather permitting) or dine at any number of terrific restaurants in Egg Harbor, Fish Creek, Ephraim, Baileys Harbor, or Sister Bay (all within a short, easy drive).
1:00– 4:00 p.m.	Free time (socialize or explore Door County) Options: hiking the trails in Peninsula State Park, shopping, sightseeing, take in the Autumn Amish Quilt Show & Sale in Sister Bay's Village Hall, or carve your pumpkin
4:00 p.m.	Happy hour (last names beginning with G–W, but NOT IF YOUR NAME BEGINS WITH AN "S," please bring snacks)
6:00 p.m.	Dinner Lasagna, green salad, French bread, cookies, coffee (bring table service)
7:00 p.m.	Bonfire with s'mores

Saturday, October 6
8:00 a.m.	Breakfast Scrambled eggs, Canadian bacon, toast, juice, coffee (bring table service)
9:00 a.m.– 2:30 p.m.	Pumpkin Patch Festival in Egg Harbor Children’s activities, outdoor entertainment, food and refreshments Vote for your favorite scarecrow-pumpkin display Plan to feast on some of the delicious offerings at the Festival for lunch
2:30 p.m.	Computer open forum—led by Bob Manak Wisconsin Web site preview Region 7 Web site preview Bob will demonstrate and navigate the two Web sites
4:00 p.m.	Happy hour (last names beginning with the letter “S,” please bring snacks) Pumpkin carving contest judging
5:00 p.m.	Spooktacular Hike in Peninsula State Park (self guided) (SP sticker required) Frightful fun along a 1-mile candlelit trail. Ghoulish not gory fun for all ages
6:00 p.m.	Dinner (prepared by Dick and Arlene Redell) Fish boil (fish/potatoes/carrots/onions) Cole slaw Cherry pie alá mode Coffee, milk (table service provided)
7:30 p.m.	Door prizes
Sunday, October 7
8:00 a.m.	Breakfast Oatmeal with ice cream, raisins, and walnuts, fruit, juice, coffee (bring table service)
9:30 a.m.	Clean up
10:00 a.m.	Stay a while longer to take in: Townline Art Fair on Hwy 42 north of Ephraim (over 80 Midwest artists) Gills Rock, Death’s Door, North Port, Ridges Sanctuary, Whitefish Dunes SP, Cavepoint County Park, Newport SP, golf and mini-golf

~ Thank you for coming ~

~ We hope to see you at the November 3 luncheon at Spats in Appleton (11:30) ~
Hosted by Craig and Jane Belling

~ Have a safe trip home ~